Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

Prior to switching to Sonic Internet + Phone, I was paying nearly $100 a month for internet access via Comcast, a company that does not appreciate customer loyalty and in fact punishes long term customers by gradually hiking up their prices for services over time. Sonic on the other hand has provided me with cheaper access to the internet and customer service that is far superior to most companies I've dealt with, let alone a cable provider.

Given how integral access to the Internet has become to find jobs, access health care, access really anything I fully support broadband competition so that it can be accessible to as many people as possible. Please don't cow-tow to the big cable companies. If you look at their loyalty record, you'll find that they'll likely work you over in time too.
